

Introduction

Myles Wealth Management, LLC (“MYLES”) is an Investment Adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). We feel it is important for you to understand how advisory and brokerage services and fees differ to determine which type of account or service is right for you. There are free and simple tools available to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/crs, which also provides educational materials about investment advisers, broker-dealers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

As an investment adviser, MYLES offers investment advisory services to retail investors which includes investment supervisory services and financial planning. If we are providing investment supervisory services to you, through personal discussions in which your goals and objectives are established, we develop your personal investment strategy and hire a third-party money manager to create and manage a portfolio based on that strategy. We will review your investments on at least an annual basis, as part of our standard services. Please refer to Item 4 of our Form ADV Part 2A for further information.

We manage accounts on a discretionary basis, which means we do not need to call you when buying or selling investments in your account and we are able to hire or fire third-party money managers for your account. You will sign an investment management agreement and limited power of attorney giving us this authority. This agreement will remain in place until you or we terminate our relationship. Please refer to Item 16 of our Form ADV Part 2A for further information.

We do not limit our advice and services to proprietary products or a limited menu of products or investments. We do not have a minimum account size requirement.

Questions to Ask Us:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications means?

What fees will I pay?

Please ask our representative to give you personalized information on the fees and costs you will pay. We charge an ongoing asset-based fee, paid quarterly. Our incentive is to increase the value of your account over time, which will increase our fees over time. We charge an hourly fee up to $250 per hour or a fixed fee ranging from $1,500 to $2,000 for our Financial Planning service.

The broker-dealer (“custodian”) that holds your assets can charge you a transaction fee when we buy or sell an investment for you. These transaction fees are in addition to our advisory fee. You could also pay fees charged by the custodian for certain investments and maintaining your account. Some investments, such as mutual funds and exchange traded funds charge additional fees that will reduce the value of your investments over time.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Please refer to Item 5 of our Form ADV Part 2A for further information.

Question to Ask Us:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

MYLES's revenue is from the advisory fees we collect from our clients' accounts each quarter. We have an incentive to increase the amount of investments we manage which could bias our advice towards investing more rather than paying off debt or recommending you not have investments that we do not manage.

Question to Ask Us:

- How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

Our financial professionals are either paid a fixed salary or are compensated through a portion of the advisory fees that MYLES collects from the accounts each financial professional manages.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

Yes, our financial professionals do have legal and/or disciplinary history. Visit www.investor.gov/crs for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals.

Questions to Ask Us:

- As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
